ABOUT THIS WINERY

Argiano is a beautiful estate in the southern western portion of the Brunello di Montalcino DOCG. The estate has a long history of excellence in the region and is reaching new heights under new ownership. The 120 ha property follows the traditional Tuscan model of mixed land use featuring vineyards, olive groves and woodlands. Argiano produces brilliant examples of Brunello and Rosso di Montalcino as well as Super Tuscan IGT wines.

TASTING NOTES

Deep, dark purple in colour with a bouquet of ripe fruit such as blackcurrants and blackberries, with a hint of toasted oak. It is smooth on the palate, with a great concentration of excellent fruit, nicely balanced with delicate, soft tannins. The structure and complexity in the mouth are outstanding, tempered by excellent tannic extracts. Its grace and delicacy mean that it can be drunk while young, but also has a remarkable ageing capacity.

WINEMAKING NOTES

Cabernet Sauvignon and Petit Verdot take a little longer to fully express their personality. The varietals are fermented separately in temperature controlled stainless steel tanks for 12-16 days. The second fermentation takes place in new French oak barriques. When the wine achieves its full potential, the final blend is created and bottled.
